Delight in the tranquility of the Black Hills, Badlands and Custer State Park. (D)

Day 2: Wednesday, May 28, 2014 Rapid City - Keystone - Rapid City Travel back to a time when steam locomotives and railroads were the primary form of transportation in America. Your journey between Hill City and Keystone on an 1880s train transforms you into an early American riding the rails in hopes of finding a new future. Later, a short ride brings you to Mount Rushmore, whose four figures carved in stone represent the first 150 years of American history. Stroll along the Presidential Trail, providing the closest access to the sculpture. Learn about Black Hills gold on a tour through Mt. Rushmore Black Hills Gold and Diamond Factory...here you'll see skilled artisans handcraft South Dakota's official state jewelry. (B)

Day 3: Thursday, May 29, 2014 Rapid City - Crazy Horse - Custer - Rapid City Visit Crazy Horse Memorial, the world's largest sculpture still in progress. The memorial includes the Indian Museum of North America, Native American Cultural Center, the sculptor's studio, and an orientation center and theaters. Many Native American artists and craftspeople create their works at the memorial and are on hand to discuss the influence of their culture on their art. Then, travel through 14 miles of magnificent rock formations on the Needle Highway*. Its curving rock tunnels and steep rock spires provide a breathtaking backdrop. Later, drive through Custer State Park where a band of bighorn sheep, a herd of majestic elk, or buffalo may be sighted! You're in cowboy country so get ready for a "Chuckwagon Supper & Cowboy Music Show" held on the film set of the movie Dances with Wolves. Kick back and relax like the locals do! (B, D)

Day 4: Friday, May 30, 2014 Rapid City - Hot Springs - Rapid City Travel to Hot Springs to see the Black Hills Wild Horse Sanctuary to view America as it was 300 years ago. Experience a guided tour through part of this endless prairie of 11,000 acres where over 400 wild horses run free. You'll also see Indian petroglyphs over 10,000 years old, a prairie dog town, an authentic Native American Sun Dance site, and the movie set from the classic, Crazy Horse. This afternoon is yours to venture out on your own or relax at your hotel. Your tour manager will be on hand to review what the area has to offer. (B)

Day 5: Saturday, May 31, 2014 Rapid City - Deadwood - Rapid City Visit Prairie Edge, a Plains Indian store and museum filled with native art, crafts and jewelry. Created by hand, their work remains faithful to the Plains Indian spirit and tradition. Next, travel to Deadwood, a rollicking, rambling western town named as a National Historic Landmark. Authentic recreations of turn-of-the-century street lamps light the way through accurately restored architecture. Upon arrival, a local guide will introduce you to the history of the city including a visit to Mount Moriah Cemetery and Kevin Costner's TaTanka: "Story of the Bison," an interpretive center that depicts the relationship of bison and man through interactive exhibits. Journey through an authentic Lakota encampment where everything from tepees to live Lakota interpreters offers a snapshot of Indian life during the height of the buffalo culture in 1840. Enjoy time at leisure in Deadwood where gold, gambling and gunpowder were the three key ingredients that created this town in 1876. (B, D)

Day 6: Sunday, June 1, 2014 Rapid City - Badlands - Wall - Rapid City Start your day with a visit to Badlands National Park. Upon arrival, make a stop at the visitors center to view its informative exhibits and displays as well as see a video introducing you to this area. ITINERARY AT A GLANCE

Days 1 – 6 Hilton Garden Inn Rapid City,

On some dates alternate hotels may be used.

Experience It! Crazy Horse Monument

Crazy Horse Memorial, the world's largest sculpture now in progress, is located in the Black Hills of South Dakota. The nine-story-high face of Crazy Horse, a visionary leader committed to preserving the traditions and values of the Lakota way of life, was completed in 1998 when work shifted to the 22-story-high massive horse's head. The work was begun in 1948 by sculptor Korczak Ziolkowski at the request of Native Americans. Korczak determined that the memorial would be more than just a sculpture...it would be a humanitarian project telling present and future generations the story of Native American peoples by collecting and preserving outstanding examples of Indian culture and heritage. Visitors to the memorial can view the progress of the sculpture as well as tour an Indian museum, cultural center, the sculptor's studio and orientation center. Although Korczak died in 1982, his wife Ruth and their family continue the project working with the Crazy Horse Memorial Foundation.

A Walk in Dakota Thyme

$40 USD

Rapid City is considered by many to be the most patriotic city in America. To prove it, they've lined their downtown streets with historic faces. Join us on a stroll of the downtown area past a series of life-size bronze statues of our nation's presidents. Artists were commissioned to research extensively into the life of each president and offer insight into the personality and the presidency of its subject. You'll delight as the statues appear to come to life. Then, relax in a local café where you'll have the opportunity to choose from a selection of desserts and beverages. Once refreshed, we'll visit one of the West's most impressive museums and discover why the Sioux called their sacred Black Hills the "Center of the Universe." The Journey Museum takes you on an incredible trek through time as it tells the story of the Black Hills through interactive displays. When your journey is complete, you'll fully understand the legacy of the land and its people. Duration: Approximately 5 hours. Please note a minimum of 15 passengers is required. Transportation is included.
